

Fact Sheet: Voter Registration Fraud in Kansas: the Non-citizen Vote.

- Between 2003 and 2007 the Kansas Department of Revenue waived, for foreign nationals, the requirement that one had to provide a partial social security number to obtain a Kansas driver's license.<sup>1</sup>
- According to the testimony of the Secretary of Revenue to a Senate committee in January of 2008, at that time, there were 50,000 Kansas driver's still in the hands of foreign nationals.<sup>2</sup>
- It has been estimated that there was a low of 1.2 million to a high of 2.7 million non-citizens registered to vote in the 2008 elections.<sup>3</sup>
- In Kansas you may register to and vote with a Kansas driver's license.
- The FBI is concerned over illegal aliens using fraudulently obtained consular identification cards (CID) to obtain driver's license in some states. It feels this poses a criminal and terroristic threat.<sup>4</sup>
- The vast majority (77%) of American citizens oppose driver's license for illegal aliens<sup>5</sup>
